

Section 1.4 – Management Commitment

The top management of Karnataka State Police Housing Corporation Limited (KSPHC) by a Board resolution in its 106th meeting held on 27th August, 2004 has decided to adopt ISO 9001:2000 Quality Management System (QMS) as a strategic tool to achieve its organizational objectives. Also, it is decided that the KSPHC quality systems be certified by an accredited certifying agency. Since the present work practices in majority fall in line with the requirements, it needs minimal realignment to meet ISO 9001:2000 QMS requirements.

KSPHC is equipped with required infrastructure and other resources for e-governance and has adopted Microsoft Web based Project Monitoring System to improve work efficiency. In addition to this, integration of the elements of International Standard ISO 10006:2003, Quality Management - guidelines to quality in project management have been considered while designing and developing the QMS based on ISO 9001:2000.

On behalf of all members of KSPHC, as per the resolution No. 2004 / 047 the Board of Directors in the 107th meeting held on 4th December, 2004 has resolved to pledge and to ensure the continual compliance with the requirements of the established Quality Management Systems as part of the good Governance practice in the company which aims to fulfill all its social objectives. Board in its 107th meeting held on 4th December, 2004 has authorised the Chairman and Managing Director to issue the Quality Manual after incorporating some minor changes suggested during discussions, for strict observance through out the Corporation.
